A tribute to guitarist Randy Rhoads, this Cabernet is of special significance to the family. Right out of the glass, this wine presents itself as a representative Sonoma County Cabernet with aromas of eucalyptus and cassis. Grown at a high altitude in volcanic soil, this cabernet is a rich, deep red. Hints of anise, mint, molasses and vanilla are balanced with a well structured tannic mouth feel and cassis berry character. Complex yet still fruit forward, this Cabernet is well aged and ready to drink now. Aged in 65% new French oak.
