Produced in a traditional port style, this late harvest Zinfandel has characteristics of both a ruby and a tawny port. A blend of several vintages of two different appellations of Zinfandel along with grape spirits that were aged in-house on new French oak. Sweet, but not overwhelmingly sweet, the wine presents big berry, dried cassis and golden raisin flavors, melding into a Madeira or tawny port-like lingering after taste. This wine has the potential to age gracefully for many years to come.
